

AMUSEMENTS.

ENGLISH OPERA.—Martha.—The largest audience, perhaps, ever assembled within the walls of the Academy, was present there last evening, on the occasion of Miss Richings' benefit.

The performance was among the very best of the opera of Martha ever given in Philadelphia in any language, and the enthusiastic applause bestowed upon it was abundantly deserved.

Mr. DAN BRYANT.—This inimitable Irish comedian appears at the Arch Street Theatre on Monday next, as the "Irish Emigrant" and "Handy Andy."

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

(FOR ADDITIONAL LOCAL ITEMS SEE THIRD PAGE.)

A DECIDED ACQUISITION to the conveniences of the business men and citizens of Philadelphia at large has just been made, in the shape of a new "City Directory," compiled by Mr. Isaac Cook, and published by Messrs. G. S. Gossell.

LARCENY OF CLOTH.—Henry Divine, in company with two others, yesterday afternoon robbed a dry goods store of E. T. Cochran, No. 168 Market street, of a large piece of cassimere.

ASSAULT WITH INTENT TO KILL.—On Thursday evening John Green, cramped on one of the cars belonging to the Thirtieth and Fifteenth Streets Passenger Railroad, assaulted the conductor, Mr. Harry Badger.

SOME MORE STABBING.—Charles Skillman, who resides on Front street, last night, in company with a friend named Frank White, who resides on Penn street, went into a saloon, and soon after issued therefrom in a somewhat intoxicated state.

YOUNG BROTHERS.—George Williams and Henry Smith, yesterday afternoon, in open daylight, and having no fear of the law, took the counting-room of the store occupied by Mr. Andrew Sterling, at the corner of Second and Tenth streets.

STRALING MEAT.—Margaret Welsh, an old offender, according to the police reports, was again arrested yesterday afternoon by Detective Reeder, for stealing meat from the stall in the market, on Second street, below Pine.

AN ALLEGED MISTAKE.—Charles Clinton, aged 25, residing in Allegheny county, came to this city lately, and put up at a public house in the vicinity of Girard and Third streets.

RECKLESS DRIVING.—John Williamson, hailing from Delaware county, and William McCaskey, who yesterday afternoon were seen driving on our streets, the hood of their carriage, were arrested by Alderman Massey, and taken to answer in $500 bail each.

JOHN W. CLAGHORN, Esq., who has been for twenty years Treasurer of the Pennsylvania Bible Society, was re-elected last Tuesday. In the list of officers of this institution, published yesterday, his name was accidentally omitted.

UP THE RIVER.—To-morrow the splendid steamer John A. Warner commences her regular Sunday trips up the Delaware, making two each day, one at a quarter before 2 o'clock, and the other at 4.

AWAYING.—WHERE TO GET THEM.—Now that we are fast in the merriments of the coming of the hot season, when all will seek for places—anywhere—so long as the hot rays do not touch them, it behoves our citizens to make preparations for awnings, with which to shade their dwellings of places of business.

A SWINDLING DODGE.—Rather a new form of swindling was brought to light yesterday. It appears that Mr. John Hackett is the owner of a number of cars which he rents to those individuals who become periodically, more especially in summer-time, itinerant peddlers.

THE RIVERS.—The high water caused by the late freshet is gradually subsiding, yet it rises along with great speed, and whirling eddies about the docks are caused by its swiftness.

ATTEMPT TO COMMIT SUICIDE.—About ten o'clock this morning, a middle aged man named Lewis Fretz, a baker by trade, attempted to commit suicide at his residence, No. 222 North Second street, by shooting himself.

CARPET CLEANING.—I would respectfully invite your attention to the PHILADELPHIA CARPET CLEANING HOUSE, located at Twenty-first and Race streets.

THE BUILDING HAVING BEEN PUT UP expressly for this business, and having the advantage of the lower floor, gives to it facilities to do a large amount of work.

Should you feel disposed to encourage this enterprise, and honor the establishment with your order, it will meet with prompt and polite attention.

ALL PERSONS engaged in cleaning carpets upon the open lots will find it to their interest to bring them to this establishment, as they can have their work done without delay, in wet as well as dry weather, and upon such terms as will make it to their interest.

DEAR FRANKLIN.—Come on quickly, I shall probably have to leave these quarters next Saturday, and it is important that I should see you here. Truly, JEFFERSON.

DEAR JEFF.—I'll come right on, only stopping at Philadelphia, according to our previous understanding. Yours, FRANKLIN.

AS SOON as these despatches were intercepted, notice was served on the officer at Fortress Monroe to detain ex-President Pierce at the landing, and search his baggage.

A NEW ERA OF GRATIFICATION TO SMOKERS.—Since the day that Sir Walter Raleigh introduced the use of the "Nicotian Weed" into his native land, up to the present hour, there has nothing transpired of as much interest to smokers of tobacco as an event which is to be publicly announced in a few days.

FASHIONS FOR LADIES.—MAY, 1867. New Paris Modes. Llama Lace Points and Rotondes. Promenade Suits. Travelling Suits. Black Dress Suits.

DREAMING IN THE LATEST PARIS STYLES, and at short notice. J. W. PROCTOR & CO., No. 929 Chestnut street.

THE old established manufacturing house of Messrs. John O. Mead & Sons, N. E. corner of Ninth and Chestnut streets, inform the trade and public that they are producing fine plated goods, comprising a full and complete assortment of table ware of every description, of a very superior quality, and of new and elegant designs.

And all such are fully guaranteed. They feel it necessary particularly to call the attention of purchasers to their stamp mark. We wish it distinctly understood by purchasers that we manufacture our goods from the base metal, Mr. John O. Mead, giving his entire personal attention to this department.

THE PARIS CORRESPONDENT of the New York Times, writing of the Exhibition, speaks as follows of the Great Stieglitz Piano:—"To carry out this illustration further, I should add that the American department, which is the poorest looking in the Exhibition, because of its absence of display, and because the articles exhibited are all practical, this department, which some of our own country people have stigmatized as a failure and a disgraceful exhibition of national inferiority, is just now the most frequented and the most talked about, because we already know what are to be the verdicts of the juries, and these verdicts are in favor of American exhibitors.

THE people always find our Men's and Boys' Clothing vastly superior to ordinary ready-made clothing. Our stock is large, and our prices are low, and we could not sell at such low prices had we not bought largely of mill owners and importers compelled to close out. Come and examine. Popular Clothing House, Oak Hall, The corner Sixth and Market streets.

DEAD.—SCOTT.—After a lingering illness, on the morning of the 11th instant, ELIZABETH, wife of Austin Scott, and daughter of William M. and Lydia A. Alberger. Due notice will be given of the funeral.

GROCERIES, ETC. TO FAMILIES GOING TO OR RESIDING IN THE COUNTRY. SIMON COLTON & CLARKE. Are prepared with a full and FRESH STOCK OF Fine and Staple Groceries, TO FILL ORDERS FOR THE COUNTRY.

SEIZURE OF EIGHT DISTILLERIES. NEW YORK, May 11.—Mr. J. Wisniewski, Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue for the District of Washington, assisted by Deputy Collector Marshall of this city, seized yesterday eight distilleries in the Ninth District, on the ground that the proprietors had manufactured illicit whiskey, and also defrauded the Government by incorrect returns. The establishments are now in the custody of the Revenue officers.

BOSSED OVER TO APPEAR AT COURT.—On a charge of illicit transactions in liquors, Samuel Mackey, Robert H. Beattie, and James Jay Mackey, were brought before United States Commissioner Smith on Monday, and directed to appear at court on Monday, and to be held to answer the charge.

THIRD EDITION FROM FORTRESS MONROE.

Departure of Jeff. Davis for Richmond.

An Interesting Procession. Jeff. and his Brother, Robert Ould, Mrs. Davis and her Sister, with Several Friends and Servants.

ETC., ETC., ETC., ETC., ETC.

FORT MONROE, May 11.—A large crowd of persons gathered on the wharf around the steamboat landing, this morning, to witness the departure of Jeff. Davis. A busy scene presented itself at Carroll Hall, as an early boat preparation was being made, Jeff. Davis and his family bid farewell to many unpleasant associations of which a two years' residence was suggestive.

THE people always find our Men's and Boys' Clothing vastly superior to ordinary ready-made clothing. Our stock is large, and our prices are low, and we could not sell at such low prices had we not bought largely of mill owners and importers compelled to close out.

DR. WISHART. WHAT IS DYSPEPSIA? DYSPEPSIA HAS THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS:

1st. A constant pain or uneasiness in the pit of the stomach.—Which is caused by a permanent contraction of the stomach upon the indigested food. It generally begins immediately after a short time after eating; is often very severe and obstinate.

2d. Flatulency and Acidity.—These symptoms arise from the indigestion of food, which ferments instead of digesting.

3d. Costiveness and Loss of Appetite.—These symptoms are the effects of the unnatural condition of the food in the stomach, and the want of a pure bile and gastric juice. The stomach is often painfully distended by wind; the appetite is sometimes voracious.

4th. Gloom and Depression of Spirits.—This state results from the impure blood furnished by imperfect digestion. In this stage of the disease many persons complain of headache, and a constant foreboding of evil, and an indifference and positive inability to perform the offices of life.

5th. Diarrhoea.—After being at first costive, the sufferer is afflicted with diarrhoea, which is owing to a diseased condition of the bowels, produced by the undigested food, which in vacated the bowels, and the food is not eaten, and of course gives no strength to the system.

6th. Pains in all Parts of the System.—Arise from the action of impure blood upon the nerves. They are felt chiefly in the head, sides, and breast, and in the extremities. In many cases there is a numbness in the throat, with a sense of choking or suffocation, the tongue is often clammy, with a bad taste, and a furrowed tongue.

7th. Consumptive Symptoms and Palpitation of the Heart.—Many persons pronounced to have these diseases have, in fact, nothing but Dyspepsia, the lung and heart disease being only symptoms.

8th. Cough.—This is a very frequent symptom of Dyspepsia, and leads very often into confirmed consumption.

9th. Want of Sleep.—A very distressing symptom, resulting from mental derangement.

10th. Symptoms of External Relation.—The patient is affected painfully by cold and heat, which is owing to unnatural dryness of skin, and the skin is often covered by eruptions and rashes. The gloomy dyspeptic avoids society as much as possible.

11th. Vomiting.—A frequent and distressing symptom, it relieves the pain, but emaciates and wears out the patient.

12th. Dimness, heaviness of vision, headache, and staggering in walking.—These are very alarming symptoms, which are speedily removed by our medicines, but if neglected are quickly followed by numbness and sudden death.

13th. It is impossible for us to give all the symptoms of Dyspepsia in so small a space, but the above are considered sufficient, if we add that the patient loses his memory and regard to surrounding objects, and frequently becomes morose and sour in disposition. We should say, however, that the pains in the joints and stiffness of the limbs, which go by the name of rheumatism and neuralgia, are produced by Dyspepsia.

N. B.—Perhaps we have not said enough of that strongest symptom of Dyspepsia, melancholy. We have examined hundreds of cases of Dyspepsia, who were so much affected in their minds that they constantly forbore loss of any kind, and many of them have been patients of the Insane Asylum, who are now permanently cured by our medicine.

Hundreds of thousands of dollars are spent yearly, and hundreds of thousands of the best men and women of America linger in pain and die, and fill a premature grave, with that awful disease, Dyspepsia. They try this physician and that physician, but alas! alas! no relief, no cure; and the next we hear of them they have gone "to that bourne from whence no traveller returns."

FOURTH EDITION. LATEST FROM WASHINGTON.

Land Office Affairs. The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received Executive orders creating additional land districts, in pursuance of the ninth section of the act of July, 1866, for mining purposes.

Two additional districts in Nevada—the first composed of the county of Lander, with the land office at Austin; the second district is composed of the counties of Elko, Humboldt, and the unorganized county of Lincoln, with the land office at Belmont.

An additional district in Idaho, composed of all that part of the Territory lying north of the Salmon river range of mountains, with the land office at Lewistown. Instructions are being prepared for the government of the miners of these districts, to the end of an early development of the mineral interests as contemplated by the act.

The Commissioner has also received the necessary order of the President consolidating the St. Augustine, Newmansville, and other land offices in the Territory of Florida, and instructions have been transmitted to the Register and Receiver of the consolidated district, giving effect to this order.

There has been submitted to the Secretary of the Interior for his approval, a list of lands containing 65,933 acres, selected for the State of Minnesota under the act of Congress approved July 4 and 11, 1866, to aid in the construction of the Northern Pacific Railroad, running from the town of Houston, through Houston, Fillmore, Mower, Freeborn, and other counties in the western boundary of the State, the Governor of Minnesota having certified to the completion of the ten miles of said road, from Houston to Rushford.
